

North American – Young Generation in Nuclear NA-YGN

CHARTER

MISSION:

The mission of the North American – Young Generation in Nuclear (NA-YGN) is to unite young professionals who believe in Nuclear Science and Technology and are working together throughout North America to share their passion for a field that is alive and kicking.

OBJECTIVES:

NA-YGN objectives include:

NA-YGN brings together the different sectors of nuclear science and technology to speak with a united voice for a common goal, and to provide professional development opportunities for its members.

NA-YGN represents the interests of young nuclear professionals within the industry at industry gatherings and international conferences.

NA-YGN looks for avenues to enhance recruiting and retention of young professionals in the field of nuclear science and technology.

NA-YGN shares its passion for nuclear science and technology by communicating with the public about the many ways in which these technologies impact our daily lives.

NA-YGN participates in public education programs on contributions of nuclear science and technology to society.

NA-YGN organizes meetings & events to facilitate networking among young industry professionals and sponsors professional development workshops for members.

MEMBERSHIP:

NA-YGN's membership base is individuals age 35 and under, working throughout the fields of nuclear science and technology. Rights of members include voting for officers / board of directors. The duties of members include supporting the mission of the organization and participation in collection of dues.

NA-YGN Officers/Board structure:

The Board of Directors consists of seven officers who promote the organization, participate in member outreach programs, and decide on policy with input from the membership. The officers will include President, Vice President, Treasurer, Professional Development Director, Public Information Director, Communications Director, and Past President/Alumni Director. The manner of election of the Officers/Board of Directors is a secret ballot to entire NA-YGN membership.

BUDGET:

Two-year projected budget (2000 – 2001) is $50,000.