NA-YGN Announcements:

1. Thanks to everyone that attended, supported, spoke, facilitated and participated in the 2010 NA-YGN Annual Conference. We are diligently working to get the materials to you out quickly (hopefully within two weeks).

2. Date Correction: The CNS is holding its 31st Annual Conference in Montreal May 24 - 27. This annual conference gathers together scientists, engineers, technologists and students interested in all aspects and applications of energy from the atom. The central objective of this conference is to provide a forum for exchange of views on how this technical enterprise can best serve the needs of humanity, now and in the future. For more information, please visit <http://conf2010.cns-snc.ca/>.

The NA-YGN Professional Development Workshop will be held on May 24 from 10 a.m. to 3 pm, just prior to the CNS Conference. This workshop is free to attend and all are welcome. The theme is, "Navigating Your Career." Speakers will be discussing topics such as "Handling Stress," "Effective Communication," and the World Nuclear University program. Questions? Contact canada@na-ygn.org.

3. Tell us what you think about Knowledge Transfer! NA-YGN will begin collecting responses for the 2009/2010 career benchmarking survey from now until May 21, 2010 (tomorrow). The focus of this year's survey will be knowledge transfer. The purpose of the survey is to gauge how the young generation views knowledge transfer and knowledge transfer program.
